

Michiana Echo Soccer Club | Understanding Echo's Fees

Last updated August 18, 2018

Echo is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, meaning that it isn't in business to make a profit.

Echo is run by an all-volunteer board of directors who do not receive any remuneration for their services and relies on volunteers and corporate sponsorships to keep fees as low as possible.

Echo sets its player fees each year based on a budget with a goal of covering its expenses and maintaining a responsible reserve fund.

Our fees cover the following types of expenses, among others:

Administrative

Administrator pay
Coaching director pay
Academy director pay
Field maintenance
Bookkeeping
Credit card fees
Marketing/communications

Team

Referee fees
League fees
Coaching pay and expenses
Equipment for coaches
Training fees

Player

Coerver training
Training shirts
Indiana Soccer registration fee
Financial aid
Strength and conditioning
