

RESPECT officials

- ❖ We will not DISSENT WITH OR YELL AT officials and instead will focus on what we can control

RESPECT players

- ❖ We will acknowledge players for their ATTITUDE AND EFFORT

RESPECT coaches

- ❖ We will appreciate coaches for the time they dedicate to TEACHING our children soccer skills and life skills

RESPECT parents

- ❖ We will show gratitude to parents for SUPPORTING our players and their love for the game of soccer

RESPECT officials

- ❖ We cannot play without officials and have no control over bad calls, so we will not DISSENT WITH OR YELL AT officials and instead will focus on what we can control
- ❖ Players focus on your effort and attitude
- ❖ Coaches focus on modeling good behavior and helping your team learn from adversity
- ❖ Parents focus on cheering positively for the players

RESPECT players

- ❖ We will acknowledge players for their ATTITUDE AND EFFORT
- ❖ Players encourage your teammates with positive words and compete hard and clean against opponents
- ❖ Coaches greet players by name and recognize and reward them for attitude and effort
- ❖ Parents cheer good play by both teams and keep it positive on the sidelines

RESPECT coaches

- ❖ We will appreciate coaches for the time they dedicate to TEACHING our children soccer skills and life skills
- ❖ Players pay attention when your coach is talking
- ❖ Coaches treat opposing coaches well and shake hands after the game
- ❖ Parents avoid coaching from the sidelines because it is confusing to players and stifles creativity

RESPECT parents

- ❖ We will show gratitude to parents for SUPPORTING our players and their love for the game of soccer
- ❖ Players thank your parents for everything they do to support you
- ❖ Coaches communicate well and often with parents, focusing on process and development
- ❖ Parents take responsibility to create positive culture on your team's sideline
